Description

The Mexican SME develops “fast fashion” clothing for young people. Their production line includes colorful and casual products as well as monochromatic products with a minimalist concept.

The collection launched includes clothing for men and women such as t-shirts (with different collar types), caps, and crop tops. Clothing is available in black, red, white and orange. Variety of designs are also offered.

This Company supports creativity of local artists. For this reason, socio-economic development is empowered in some regions located in the south of Mexico.

Their collection is sold via online. In order to expand their sales, the company is looking for commercial agents and distributors in the targeted countries, selling to retailers, boutiques and online shops.

The firm has presence in the Netherlands, and wants to sell its products by developing its activities abroad. For this reason, the company is looking for new distributors.
