General Information

Short summary

A company from Poland is offering unique retro trade carriages with patented design, configured according to specific customer needs. These carriages can be used as permanent commercial stands in historic sites or as festival stands, set up on special occasions. Commercial agreement is sought.

Full description

A company from south-east Poland is offering trade carriages with patented design resembling 17th century merchant wagons. The offered trade carriages can be used as food and beverage stands, souvenir shops etc. in tourist destinations or historic sites. A row of similar stands would also look perfect during festivals and other outdoor events. They have already been used in several towns around Poland.

Prices depend on individual order, as the interior can be configured according to specific customer needs. The offered product is unique and its design is legally protected (patent granted). Beside the presented trade carriages, client also offers outdoor dining pergolas and beer garden fences in a variety of styles - details to be provided upon request.

Commercial agreement is sought.
